DEDICATION

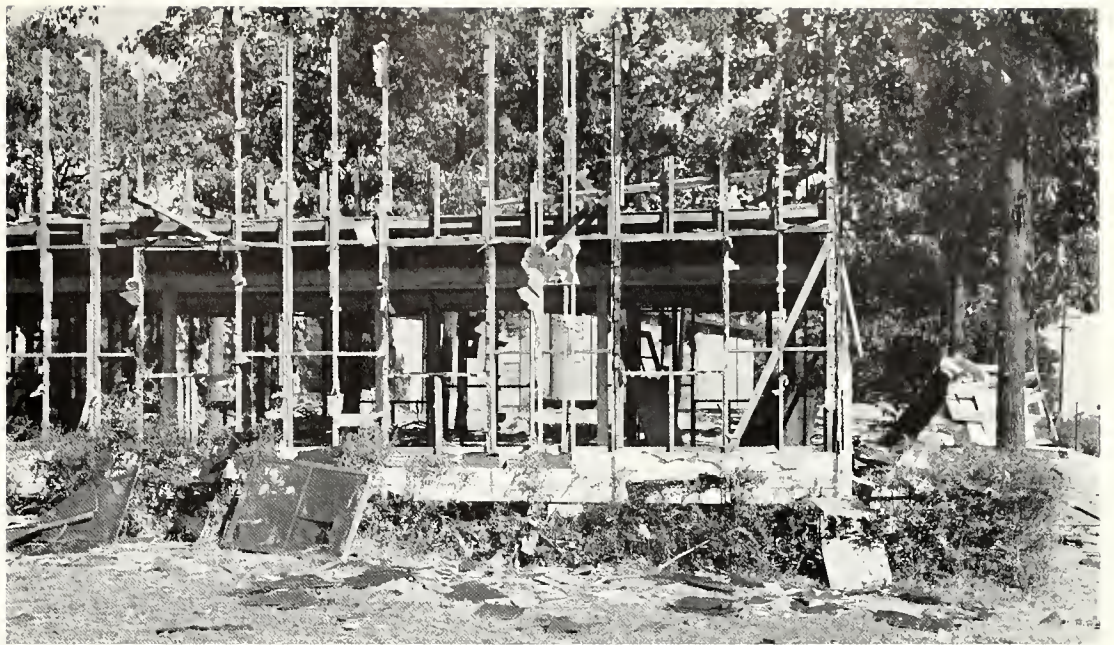

"Know thyself" was Plato's advice to the man who would be good, and in the quest for this self-realization, Dr. Oliver Cornelius Weaver has attained a pinnacle of personal integrity and scholarly distinction seldom reached by any man. His brilliant intellect and empathy for all students have made the man and his courses in religion and philosophy a legend at Birmingham-Southern College. Returning to his alma mater where he graduated cum laude, Dr. Weaver has become a symbol for the uncompromising quest for knowledge and philosophy personified to all students. Because of his long, devoted career of service, and his personal warmth and sincerity, we respectfully dedicate the 1962 edition of the Southern Accent to Dr. Oliver Cornelius Weaver.

“FORWARD EVER BE OUR WATCHWORD...”

Familiar trodden pathways are destroyed by impersonal bulldozers as the summer wanes into fall, and students return to a bewildering maze of machinery and gaping holes. But the quest for knowledge will not be halted, and the detours soon become well trodden paths as 'Southern settles down to the routine of a typical day.

The South shall rise again!

"THE WASTELAND"

The hilltop itself is in danger of becoming proverbial.

A rare moment of solitude.

'Twas eight in the morning
And all through the dorm,
Not a drop of water
Was found to be warm.

Bulldozers externally and bunk-beds internally
... progress invades the women's dormitory.

Toes in your nose?

Making the eight o'clock class becomes an even greater challenge as six in a suite strive to use the facilities for four.

The Mirror of Progress.

No parking place and a long cafeteria line are not the only obstacles to obtaining breakfast; one must first pass the hurdle of construction work and crew!

Procrastination

And off to classes.

Congestion and conversation.

Conversation, coffee, congeniality and crowds, forgetting for a brief time that other alliterative word-classes!

"Don't bug me, man!"

The pause that refreshes.

10 o'clock and all is well, another morning shot.

"Well, where's Peanuts?"

One tradition which progress couldn't destroy—Convocation.

A quick snack and back to classes.

Afternoon . . . and 'Southern retires to a semi-somnambulant state, heightened by the quiet of the library, broken only by the recorded peals of an abolished bell.

Late afternoon and the tennis courts slowly come to life as the gym reverberates to the screaming stimulus of intramurals.

Hanson's sign-out book is autographed by both serious and supposed scholars . . .

Serious

Supposed

Night descends and studies begin in earnest.
A walk to the library discloses skeletal windows and columns, made ghostly by flickering lights . . .

Friday night brings added attractions of late curfew and fraternity parties.

'Southern's official hostess greets visitors.

Typical

'Southern's
Timeless
Silhouette . . .

Though the face may change, the spirit remains the same continuing to grow as does the college.

Prelude to a wonderful day.

MAY DAY 1962

For last of things to come.

"Do it, Darlin'."

Bookstore, Bermudas, and Beer

A great day on Southern's campus.

Smiles of Envy.

May Day, sponsored by SGA was an event greatly enjoyed by all students. Beginning with a bonfire on Thursday night everyone was in the mood for Bermudas Friday. Dancing in the bookstore, field events and a soap box derby were highlights of the day. Presentation of the May Court and May Queen, Cynthia Ford, climaxed a wonderful weekend.

"Aren't they lovely"

Summer came and students scattered, yet for those who stayed BSC became a different campus.

STUDENT FORUM

1962 saw the inauguration of Student Forums on 'Southern's campus. These forums sponsored by the Student Government Association were held so that students might have a chance to give their views on important subjects in question. No student was obligated to speak, nor were any students denied the privilege of speaking. So that students might feel free to express their opinions, no members of the faculty or administration were present. Each opinion expressed was recorded and given careful consideration by a committee composed of students, professors, members of the administration.

"Should the Honor System at Birmingham-Southern College be Abolished?" and "Are Religious Organizations Necessary" were topics discussed.

Would you believe they're snow-bound?

They won't be the Olympics.

Do it, Mrs. Newton.

The snow came bringing with it many hours of fun, frolic and free love. Our childhood days returned as we slid down 'Southern's numerous hills on trays absconded from the cafeteria. Most of us found ourselves twisting in the pub and in Hanson's solarium. Bridge, sex and no classes were the topics of the day.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

"The Church's Mission in America" was the theme for this year's Religious Emphasis Week, February 5-9, 1962, at Birmingham-Southern College. To open this inspiring and thought-provoking week, The Very Reverend A. William Crandell, President of Spring Hill College, presented to BSC students an enlightened speech entitled "In God Is Our Trust." Guest speaker for Tuesday was Rabbi Eugene Blachschleger, spiritual leader of the Temple Bethor in Montgomery, Alabama. Rabbi Blachschleger's topic was "Jews in the Making of America." To complete the week Birmingham-Southern was most fortunate indeed, to have the Reverend Jameson Jones, assistant professor of religion at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Illinois. Reverend Jones chose as topics befitting the main theme: "America: The Story of No Success"; "The Church: A Busy Signal"; "The Christian Student: Salt and Shoes." These speakers held informal sessions each afternoon at the Cellar and were available each day for personal consultations.

This year's Religious Emphasis Week was most successful and students actively participated in all phases of the programs.

Achilles' famous oratory.

Jealousy over Reason.

Hector has the upper hand.

Pandarus seems ticklish.

Under the brilliant direction of Dr. Arnold Powell, Birmingham-Southern College Theatre presented its first production of the year, Troilus and Cressida. The stylized production of William Shakespeare's controversial play showed much effort and polish rarely seen in college presentations. Superior acting and excellent sets caused the production to be greeted with much enthusiasm by packed audiences.

JUDGING

Beginning with a tea for the forty-eight nominees, Dr. Hubert Harper, Miss Lily Mae Caldwell, Miss Virginia Mae Schmitt and Mr. Cecil McGlohon narrowed the field to seventeen through a process of personal interviews. At a banquet held for the judges and finalists, the judges made their tentative decision. The final decision was reached as each girl was presented on stage at the Southern Accent pageant, directed by George Thomason.

SUE NUNGESTER—Editor

Time, trouble, tears and tranquilizers are very much a part of the 1962 Southern Accent. Whether the yearbook was worth the effort is the decision for you to make. We have made an attempt to capture in words and pictures those things which have made 1962 and Birmingham-Southern College a part of each of you. Rushing to meet deadlines, no doze, and broken dates are among the memories which we have of work on the 1962 Southern Accent. One may wonder why go through all this. There is a certain spirit which exists on the Southern Accent staff, but which is hard to communicate. The unused captions, all night sessions and forgotten pictures make the annual something special for each of us. We hope that each of you will find something within the covers of the 1962 Southern Accent which will make it special to you.

THE HILLTOP NEWS

The function of a student publication lies in complete and concise news coverage for its campus readers. Our 1961 Hilltop News Staff, realizing this obligation, devoted many hours fulfilling its purpose. Through a great sense of dedication and cooperation all campus activities were included in the newspaper's coverage. Aside from campus activities we attempted to present a view of the national and local news scene.

The woman in the middle is wearing a white blouse and is also smiling. The woman on the right is wearing a plaid shirt and is looking towards the camera. They are all sitting behind typewriters, and there are papers on the desk. The background is a plain wall with a small framed picture hanging on it.

QUAD

QUAD is both the motivation and the means for self-expression on our campus. Its purpose is to create in the students of this college a desire for creativity—for imaginative writing and art work, which can be utilized only by a publication of this type.

Often there is the tendency to disregard the real value of a campus literary magazine, considering it unimportant because it appeals only to a limited number of people. Yet, to fulfill the objective of publishing the best literary and artistic efforts of our students, it must necessarily be limited in its appeal. Extremely popular a literary magazine can never be, for in gaining widespread popularity it consequently loses its selectivity.

It is hoped that something of value may be found in this magazine—whether it is an appreciation of creative ability and rational thinking, a discovery of diverse ideas, a new evaluation of self and others, or a picture of current thoughts and beliefs. From its rude beginnings may QUAD continue to strive for higher quality and to develop on our campus into an adequate medium of student expression, a self-sufficient enterprise and a definite contribution to the cause of art in our highly scientific world.

This year's QUAD editor is Elizabeth Sulzby.

The Student Government Association is the official campus organization of the student body. The Student Legislature, the governing unit of this organization, is a member of the Southern Universities Student Government Association (SUSGA). One of our representatives, Charles Hudgins, was elected chairman from Alabama and is presently serving in this capacity.

The Student Government Association sponsored a "rat-hat" program during freshman orientation which was continued throughout the year. The Student Legislature also spearheaded the season ticket sale for the basketball games this year. Among other activities were sponsoring an all campus square dance for the freshmen, Eddie Condon Concert and a Spring dance.

SGA Officers—Ed Putnam, Patti Patterson, Sammy Mann, and Sherrill Lamppin.

PRE-LAW SOCIETY

This year the Birmingham-Southern Pre-Law Society was formed through the cooperation of interested students and faculty. Membership is open to all students of Birmingham-Southern College who are interested in law as a profession.

The purpose of the Pre-Law Society is to promote and encourage pre-legal study at Birmingham-Southern College, and to increase the students' understanding of law and of the legal profession.

The society meets on the second Wednesday in each month at the Cellar. Guest speakers include prominent members of the legal profession and outstanding law school professors.

VICKY MARTIN	Secretary
LARRY VISE	Treasurer

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity composed of former scouts. The fraternity's purpose is to assemble college men in the fellowship of the scout oath and law, to develop friendship and to serve the school, community and nation.

Some of the many activities of Alpha Phi Omega include sponsoring the annual Bloodmobile, and actively participating in the Jones Valley Fund Raising Campaign. Allen Oaks is this year's President.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council functions to promote friendly relations among the fraternities and to set up rush regulations. The group is composed of two members from each of the seven fraternities on campus. This organization meets each week and Ferrell Singleton is this year's President.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each of the sororities on campus. They serve to promote friendly relations, formulate plans for organized rush, and supervise other policy matters relating to sorority life.

Rush is opened in the fall with a Panhellenic tea for all new girls. The Council under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Cothran prepares information to be given to all girls going through rush.

Pat Ellisor is this year's Panhellenic President.

INDEPENDENT WOMEN

Independent Women, Birmingham-Southern's chapter of the National Independent Student's Organization, is open to any woman student not affiliated with a national sorority. Independent Women offers its members participation in social and campus activities including the intramural sports program, Catspaw, Mr. Hilltopper, and May Day. Charlotte Manning is serving as this year's President.

SOUTHERN ACCENT STAFF AT WORK

SPORTS

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Wells takes charity toss.

1962 saw more emphasis placed on varsity sports. Under Coach Burch's guidance the Panthers, sparked by new blood, were victorious in many exciting games. Rat Caps and a pep squad gave added support and spirit to our team.

"How does it look, Rupp?"

"Aw, Bill, come down from there."

'Southern's answer to Bob Cousy.

"Hang in there, Tony."

BEAUTY FOR THE BEASTS!

Cheerleaders Martha Chafin, Diane Etheridge, Rene Armstrong, Patti Patterson, Peggy Patterson, Nancy Watson, Karla Tatum, and Betty Striplin supply the spirit for our Panthers.

"Birmingham All Hail!!" . . . Choral Directing 101.

Panther guard Monte Brakefield hits for two.

Cheerleaders demonstrate 'Southern's answer to the twist—the flip.

Chug! Chug! Woo! Woo! Spirits are lifted during a Panther victory.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

The Men's Intramural Council is made up of a representative from each fraternity. The council is responsible for setting up the schedule and regulations for the men's intramural sports. The intramural program consists of team sports such as touch football, basketball, volleyball and softball. The individual sports are table tennis, horseshoes, swimming, badminton, tennis, and paddleball.

Coach Battle is the director of the Men's Intramural Program. Monte Brakefield serves as Coach Battle's student assistant. Coach Battle and his assistant work closely with the fraternities to see that all the sports are maintained on an efficient level and promotes good sportsmanship.

A peaceful day on the B.S.C. "rock garden."

"Who got the ball?"

"Give 'em hell, Ed."

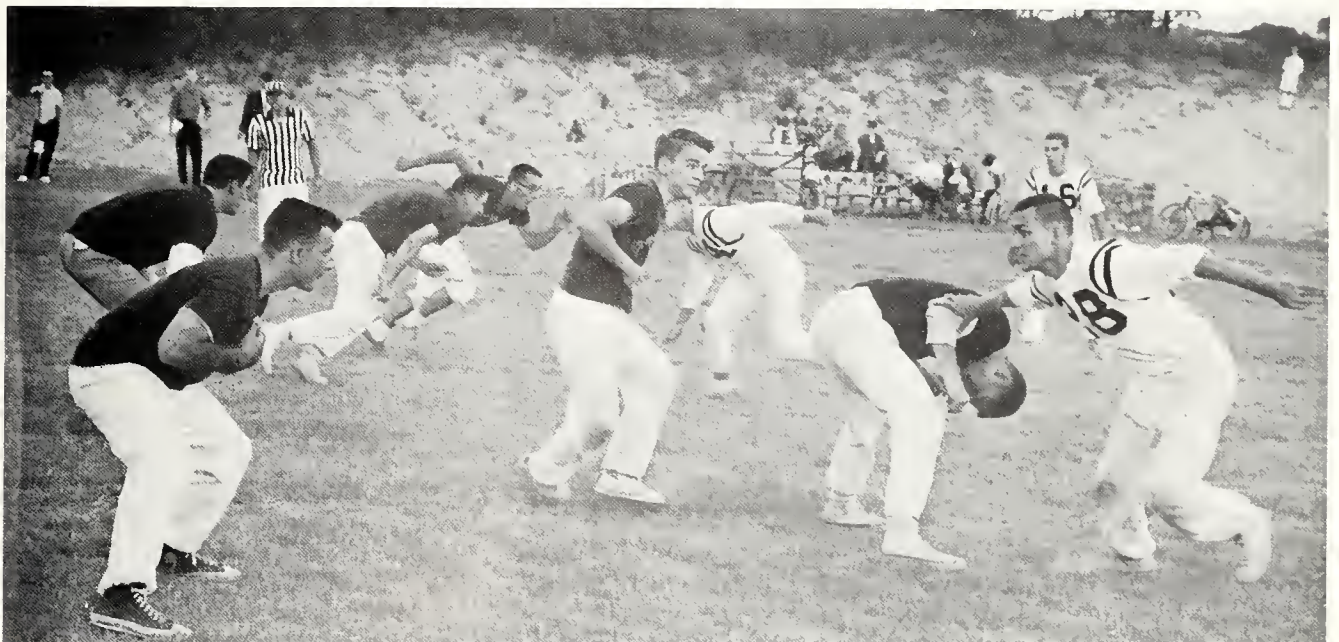

A helluva way to spend an afternoon.

"Quit that."

"No, you take him."

"It can't be that bad, Barry."

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

The Women's Intramural Council is composed of sports managers and one representative from each participating group. It acts as a governing body over all Intramural sports, which include volleyball, basketball, badminton, tennis, softball, table tennis, and swimming. In the fall the council annually sponsors the powderpuff bowl—a football game for the girls.

Among the duties of the council are to organize and supervise all sports tournaments, train and select officials, and rule over all decisions involved in the intramural sports program. A banquet is held each spring at which time team and individual trophies and medals are presented.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Alpha Omegas of Alpha Chi Omega began the school year by returning to a newly decorated sorority room, with the Sportsmanship Cup and Philanthropic Trophy among the new additions. The social calendar started with the annual Founder's Day banquet celebrating Alpha Chi's seventy-sixth birthday, followed by various teas honoring the twenty-one pledges, parents-alumnae, and Mrs. Guy Snively, a chapter alumna. Winter quarter began with a visit from the National Collegiate Extension Director, followed by fraternity coffees, informal parties and climaxed by the annual dinner-dance. The year ended with a national convention held in Miami, Florida.

The Lyre badge is found everywhere on the hilltop. In honorary fraternities, the president of Kappa Delta Epsilon and treasurer of Alpha Lambda Delta support the colors of scarlet and olive green. Other members are found in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Phi Chi Theta, Phi Sigma Iota and President's Scholars. Alpha Chis are in many other organizations: Managing Editor of the Hilltop News, vice-president of Amazons, volleyball intramural manager, Women's Dorm Council, Water Ballet, College Theatre, Student Government and Art Students' League. Rachel Mathes and Diane Higgenbotham are in the Birmingham Civic Opera.

In the field of philanthropic work, the fraternity is the foster parent of a Korean child, and has contributed to the aid of cerebral palsy by making self-help toys.

Alpha Chi's entertain rushees in a Scottish atmosphere.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Returning to the campus after having retired the Interfraternity Sing trophy, first place in volleyball and co-winner of the Sportsmanship Trophy, Tau Delta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi faced formal rush with enthusiasm and characteristic spirit.

Climaxing rush was the chapter's Pledge Banquet at the Luau where AOPi actives welcomed an outstanding pledge class to the chapter.

AOPi's made Thanksgiving baskets and collected toys for their National Philanthropic Project, the Frontier Nursing Service. Proceeds from a lively "Mr. Hilltopper" show went to this project.

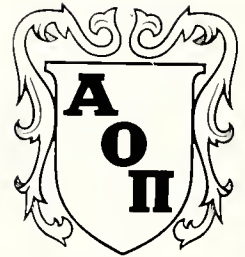

Not all hard work for Tau Delta, the chapter held a pledge spend-the-night party, entertained the collegiate director and frolicked at a breakfast following "Mr. Hilltopper."

AOPi's swept the field in intramurals, placing first in volleyball and basketball in fall and spring quarters. Jackie Collins, senior AOPi, was manager of the Intramural Council.

Girls wearing the AOPi Rose were to be found in positions of leadership throughout the campus. Among organizations AOPi's led were Alpha Psi Omega, S.G.A., religious groups, Religious Council, Panhellenic Council, Choir, College Theatre, and the Orchestra.

Highlight of the entire year was the crowning of Willie Hodges "Mr. Hilltopper" after weeks of hard work on stage decorations, chorus line practices and committee work. Norma Goodwin was chairman of the event.

Alpha Omicron Pi's spirit, evident first in rush, functioned to make the entire year one to remember for Tau Delta.

KAPPA DELTA

Having received a Merit Award, highest award for a Kappa Delta chapter, at the summer national convention, Alpha Upsilon began a successful year by pledging twenty-two wonderful girls.

KD was proud to have members serve as presidents of Panhellenic, Amazons, Phi Sigma Iota, and College Theatre. A Kappa Delta was editor of the 'Southern Accent'. Other Kappa Deltas served as officers for Alpha Lambda Delta, Mortar Board, Price Fellowship, M.S.M., Canterbury Club, Westminster Fellowship, and Kappa Delta Epsilon.

Wearing KD shield were members of Phi Beta Kappa, President's Scholars, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Hilltop News Staff, Triangle Club, College Theatre, Alpha Psi Omega, the College Choir, and the Honor Council.

For the second consecutive year, a Kappa Delta was crowned "Miss Southern Accent." Her court contained two KD beauties and six KD finalists.

Our chapter also boasted members of the May Court and the cheerleading squad. Our members were found among the fraternity sweethearts and one sister was chosen the "Best Dressed Girl on Campus."

We have had a successful Intramural year. The KD swimming team won the Swim Meet. Kappa Delta tied for the first place for the volleyball championship. One of our sisters won the tennis tournament last summer.

Our chapter is proud of having been first in scholarship during the past winter quarter and second during the past spring quarter.

Social highlights of the year were the Founder's Day banquet, Steak Fry, Initiation Banquet, Halloween Party, houseparty and informal chapter suppers.

PI BETA PHI

Holding the second highest Pi Beta Phi national award, the Stoolman Vase, the Alabama Alpha's again combined campus activities and social events for a very successful year.

Fall quarter, beginning with the pledging of twenty-two girls, was highlighted by the annual dinner dance at the Mountain Brook Country Club honoring the pledge class.

The arrow girls prided themselves in having members in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Triangle Club, Eta Sigma Phi, Canterbury Club, College Choir, Water Ballet, all-star volleyball team, Theta Sigma Lambda, Hilltop News staff, and the Debate Squad. Presidents of Alpha Lambda Delta, Religious Council, American Chemical Society, and State M.S.M. were all Pi Phi's. The wearers of the wine and blue also had offices in Mortar Board, Amazons, B.S.U., State B.S.U., M.S.M., KDE, Intramural Council, and Phi Chi Theta. Vice-President and three division representatives of SGA were also Pi Phi's. Two Pi Phi's were cheerleaders and two were found in the beauty section of the annual.

Other social events highlighting this year included entertaining at the crippled children's hospital, "Cookie Shines," receptions, slumber parties, room parties, and teas.

THETA UPSILON

Xi Chapter of Theta Upsilon enjoyed a busy and prosperous year in 1962. Placing emphasis on scholarship, philanthropic service, and campus activities caused Theta Upsilon to be a very active sorority.

Due to emphasis on scholarship, Theta Upsilon is always on top in competition for high scholastic average. Our efforts were well spent as shown by the fact that Theta Upsilon placed first in scholarship among the sororities for the winter quarter.

Our philanthropic projects included work with the local Girls' Club, the White Cane Drive, and the Crippled Children's Clinic. National Philanthropies to which Xi chapter contribute their support include the Navajo Assistance Agency and Berea Health Fund of Berea College in Kentucky.

Activities and honoraries in which Theta U's participated include College Theatre, College Choir, Alpha Lambda Delta, Amazons, KDE, Phi Sigma Iota, Southern Accent Staff, Hilltop News staff and various religious organizations.

Not ignoring the social side of college life, the Theta U's enjoyed several parties, banquets and teas.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Birmingham-Southern College continued to depend heavily on its first sorority on campus, Alpha Nu of Zeta Tau Alpha. The thirty-five members and full quota of pledges filled chapter limitation in membership. This year Alpha Nu's name was in headlines in fields of scholarship, honoraries, extracurricular, sports, philanthropic, and social activities.

Returning to a newly redecorated sorority room, the Alpha Nus entertained their sister, Delores Hodgins, who was crowned Miss Alabama and continued to win national honors. With the end of a fun-filled fall rush twenty-one pledges wore the turquoise and silver pledge pin.

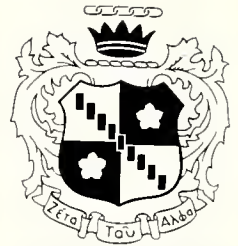

Taking their places of leadership on the campus, Zetas were active in the Student Government Association, the Hilltop News staff, president's scholars, Alpha Lambda Delta, Mortar Board, Triangle Club, College Choir, College Theatre, religious organizations, water ballet, Amazons, and national honoraries such as Phi Chi Theta, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Eta Sigma Phi, and Alpha Psi Omega.

Offices in Mortar Board, Women's House Council, religious organizations, and intramural council were held by Zetas. Members of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, favorites of the yearbook, May Court, the Student Life Committee, and cheerleaders wear the pin of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Working together the chapter lives up to titles of first place in Catspaw, first place in intramural sports winning the Miss Victory trophy, and second place in Interfraternity Sing.

This year the standards committee placed special emphasis on scholarship. A book review or special program led by professors were held each quarter.

Social activity included an informal date party each quarter, pledge and senior banquets, the annual Christmas dinner dance, supper meetings, and the parent-daughter tea.

Zetas enjoy their philanthropic project.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Beta Beta chapter of Alpha Tau Omega is now in its seventy-seventh year on the Birmingham-Southern campus and is still maintaining its outstanding position in all areas of campus life.

On the sports side, the ATO gridiron stars came through in true fashion with another undefeated season. The volleyball team showed the same spirit in taking this sport undefeated. The other sports show great promise for winning teams. Many of the brothers are outstanding in individual sports, and ATO is represented in varsity basketball by Lamar Odum and John Mackin.

ATO is well represented in other phases of campus life with brothers in the Student Government Association, ODK, Honor Council, Triangle Club; President's Scholars, Editor of Hilltop News, Phi Eta Sigma, Theta Sigma Lambda, and Eta Sigma Phi.

Socially, the Taus have several outstanding parties ranging from the Halloween party in the Fall Quarter to the Hawaiian Luau in the Spring.

ATO adheres to the principles of Christian Brotherhood and strives to develop individual character in the college community.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Delta chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha celebrated the ninetieth anniversary of its chartering with a brunch honoring a distinguished alumnus, Dr. Luther L. Terry, Surgeon General of the United States.

After concluding the ninetieth year, which yielded a pledge class with the highest pledge scholastic average of any fraternity on campus, Delta entered its ninety-first year with the brothers participating in many campus activities. Among the Pikes are members and officers of Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity, Triangle Club, President's Scholars, Ministerial Association, College Touring Choir, College Theatre, Alpha Psi Omega, Technical Committee of the Water Ballet, and the Orchestra.

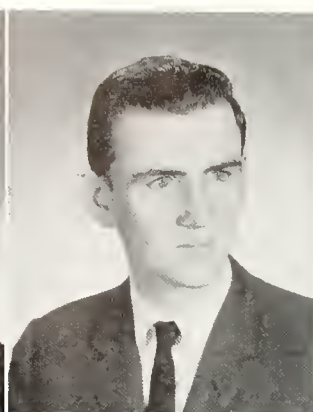

With 73% of the brothers as donors, Delta won the first award for participation in the campus Red Cross blood drive. The chapter also won the award for highest fraternity scholastic average during Fall quarter 1961, topping both the men's and women's all-campus averages.

The Delta chapter social season was a great success highlighted by the annual Halloween Party and Christmas Dance as well as joint parties with other Pike chapters in the state. The climax of the social season was the Dream Girl Ball at which Miss Suzy Fullerton, Southern Accent Favorite, was crowned Dream Girl for 1962.

CALLING COLLEGE GRADUATES!!

CHOOSE A CAREER WITH A FUTURE—A Helping Profession

Opportunities await you with the Alabama Dept. of Pensions and Security.

The beginning jobs in the social work series in the Department of Pensions and Security are those of case worker (also called pension counsellor) and child welfare worker-in-training. For the case worker position you must have a degree from a 4-year college or university, complete successfully the State Merit System Exam for this job, and be able to drive a car and have one available to you. The position of child welfare worker-in-training is used on a selective basis when child welfare workers are not available. Upon employment, the worker-in-training becomes a candidate for educational leave.

ADVANTAGES ARE MANY:

Employment under the State Merit System

Beginning salary: $326 per month; annual salary review; opportunities for promotion after receiving professional social work training (with stipends granted for graduate study)

Paid vacation (annual leave) and sick leave

Social Security

State Employees Retirement System

Group Hospital and Health Insurance

Official Travel Expenses

If YOU like people, if you want to help them and to make your community better, if you want a truly rewarding job, investigate a career with the Department of Pensions and Security.

You don't have to be Phi Beta Kappa to know what this symbol stands for! To the Birmingham Southern student, it represents a proud tradition of which he is a part. Likewise, the letter "A" stencilled on cast iron pipe and tubular products also has a meaning. In short, it stands for American Cast Iron Pipe Company . . . where progress is a policy for the good of all.

SECURITY and FREEDOM

The Statue of Liberty is an important symbol to all Americans because it represents the freedom which is the foundation of our way of life. Our Company is proud to use it as its trademark.

Men to remain free must provide security for themselves and their families and most American families have found life insurance to be the best way to provide this security.

Liberty National Life Insurance Company is providing a large measure of security for many families. Over a third of a billion dollars is held by the Company for the protection of policyowners. Perhaps this financial strength is one of the reasons why more and more people each year buy their life insurance from Liberty National.
